GRADUATES TAKE DIFFICULT TESTS

High Requirements of Examining Board of Schools Reducing Number of Doctors.

About 110 medical graduates are today undergoing at the Mechanics' Institute the severe test that the State Board of Medical Examiners requires as a preliminary to granting a license to practice medicine. The applicants are taking three written examinations a day, each one lasting for three hours, and the examinations to be continued for three days. The time limit is strictly enforced and the student must finish each subject in the allotted three hours.

Five of the applicants are colored, and three of them are women, so that the women being colored. It is estimated that 25 or 30 per cent of the applicants will fail to satisfy the requirements of the board, that being about the usual percentage of failures. Not much more than 100 doctors will be admitted to practice in the State this year, the examiners say, and this comparatively small number is due to the increasingly severe requirements of both the medical schools and the State board.

Examinations Difficult.
 The examination, as given now, is a very difficult and thorough one, so that no man not adequately educated has a chance for a license. The difficult requirements have been a gradual development from the time when students were admitted to practice on the strength of their school diplomas, and the schools were left to fix their own requirements for graduation. This development, it is stated, is greatly reducing the number of doctors, increasing their average efficiency.

The examinations include over 100 questions in all, and cover a great variety of subjects. For example, the young doctors are today telling what they know about physiology, embryology, materia medica, therapeutics, hygiene, medical jurisprudence and preventive medicine.

In addition to their examination papers, the applicants are required to submit a statement of their preliminary training, and each one a photograph of himself. The last is a precautionary measure to prevent one man from taking the examinations and another one securing the license—a deception that has been practiced in the past. Dr. R. S. Martin, of Stuart, Va., is chairman of the board, and Dr. H. Herbert Old, of Norfolk, secretary.

Eighty Enrolled Yesterday.
 The enrollment in the Richmond summer school is steadily increasing. Eighty new pupils having been added yesterday morning, the total number enrolled up to 300. Four teachers have been added to the original faculty to take care of the increase. This present enrollment for the different schools is as follows:

Ruffner, 52; Chimbrow, 55; Stonehill, 16; Probst, 42; John Marshall High School, 65.

RAILROAD AMENDS ANCIENT CHARTER

R. F. & P. Surrenders Tax Exemption Claim in Accordance With Agreement.

Approval was given by the State Corporation Commission yesterday to the amendments to the charter of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad Company, as agreed upon in the compromise settlement of the tax litigation between the commissioners presenting the State and the officers of the company. The agreement, which was authorized by an act of the last General Assembly, has been held to be valid by the Supreme Court of Appeals of the State, and has been ratified by the stockholders of the railroad. Under its terms, the company has paid over to the State a considerable sum for back taxes, and will hereafter surrender its claim for tax exemption and will be assessed as are other railway properties.

Corkis and Curls, a student publication of the University of Virginia, was incorporated by the State Corporation Commission yesterday. It will have no capital stock. The officers are to be Frank W. Rogers, president, of Dendron, Va.; John A. McNaughton, secretary, of New York; D. Hiden Ramsey, of Asheville, N. C., and Richard W. Carrington, of Richmond.

Other charters were issued by the State Corporation Commission yesterday as follows:
 Campbell, Terrell Telephone Company, Radford, Va. Capital, $500.
 J. P. Campbell, president; J. P. Terrell, vice-president; Mrs. J. P. Campbell, secretary and treasurer, Radford, Va.
 Bonnet Corporation, Norfolk. Capital, $4,000 to $20,000. Thomas H. Willis, president; Tazewell Taylor, secretary and treasurer; R. D. Cooke, all of Norfolk.

IS FINED TWICE

H. L. Isaacs was fined $5 and costs yesterday morning in Police Court for interfering with Patrolman Bosquet, and with his brother, W. B. Isaacs, he was fined $5 for assaulting M. J. Hooper, colored.

H. L. Isaacs was arrested about noon Tuesday for checking in a fight with W. B. Isaacs. The latter was also arrested, but failed to appear in court. An attachment for him was issued. After Isaacs had been locked up he complained of an intense pain in his back. A surgeon said he was sure it was a broken bone, and a warrant charging Isaacs with felonious assault was sworn out.

Isaacs was hailed by his brother, and shortly after the hour he was released from the jail. He was taken to his home, 10th and Broad Streets, and there the trouble with Hooper took place and resulted in their arrest by Bosquet.

The hearing of the assault and fighting charges against Isaacs continued by Justice Crutchedfield until Saturday.

CAN'T ABUSE POLICEMAN
 Mrs. A. E. Therpe Fined $5 for Telling Officer He Is No Gentleman.

For telling Patrolman W. A. Moore he was no gentleman, Mrs. A. E. Therpe, proprietor of the Rex Theatre, Seventh and Broad Streets, was fined $5 and costs yesterday morning in Police Court. She appeared in passing sentence Justice Crutchedfield said she intended to protect policemen from abuse. Mrs. Therpe testified that she told Moore "if you report me you are no gentleman." Moore said she did not qualify her statement in this manner. The altercation arose over the matter of a cellar cap which was in need of repair.

NO SOLID SHOTS SAYS COMMITTEE

Recount of Ballots Begins Under Primary Plan Rather Than by Byrd Law—Only Seven Precincts Counted, With No Change in Results

After a nine-hour session yesterday afternoon and last night, the City Democratic Committee recounted seven of the twenty-two precincts in the city, without material change in the results. "Solid shots" were barred, the committee, after an hour's discussion, and after hearing from each of the candidates deciding to adhere to the original plan requiring each voter to vote for five in the House of Delegates' contest and for three in the Justice of the Peace contest. The Fourth Precinct of Clay Ward only partially counted when the committee adjourned early this morning showed a large number of solid shots or ballots on which all names out of that of Mr. Montague were scratched, they were all thrown out. The official recount, as far as it has gone, follows:

of candidates was adopted. Chairman Martin appointed as chairman for the recount Mr. Pulliam for Clay Ward, Mr. Purcell for Lee, Mr. Florence for Madison, and Mr. Price for Jefferson, these to associate other members with them in the count. Actual counting began at 5:35 P. M., and at 1:30 A. M. the committee rose to meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock, having counted but seven of the twenty-two precincts. The results are not changed so far, Captain Curtis having gained eleven votes and Mr. Toney gained five in the Fourth Precinct, which was two-thirds counted when the committee adjourned. It was stated that fifty or more "solid shot" votes for Mr. Montague had been thrown out.

Three of the seven precincts counted were by Mr. Price's committee, organized by David Bottom. Clyde Saunders organized an extra committee and counted two. Secretary Walter Duke presided in a committee of outsiders under Warren P. Taylor, and counted a precinct in fifty-five minutes.

DISCUSS PLANS FOR BIG EXHIBIT

Richmond Manufacturers Have Taken 80 Per Cent of Space. Last B. M. C. Luncheon.

Plans for the permanent manufacturers' exhibit which is to be installed in the new Chamber of Commerce building at Sixth and Main Streets, were explained at the last of the series of table talk luncheons given at the Business Men's Club yesterday afternoon. The subject for discussion was "What Richmond Has Accomplished, and What She Must Do in the Future," and F. W. Brown stated that the exhibit will do more for the commercial prosperity of the city than any one other thing.

The promoters of the exhibit have arranged for space for 117 exhibits on three floors, and 80 per cent of the space on two floors has already been rented. It is expected that all of the 400 Richmond manufacturers will be represented there in a few years.

Mr. Rorace Smith pointed out that the usefulness of the exhibit will depend upon the patronage of Richmond people, and he urged that all take advantage of the opportunity to learn what is made in Richmond.

L. McKay Jenkins spoke on the playground and recreation work which is being carried on in the city this year. He paid tribute to the Administrative Board for the way it has complied with the requests of the committee. He said that a much larger sum will be required next year, and asked the moral support of the business men in obtaining it.

J. A. Johnston spoke about what the Business Men's Club has done for Richmond, asserting that it is a dynamic force back of all movements for civic betterment.

AWARD CONTRACT FOR PARK MUSIC

Professor Moses Stein and Band to Begin Concerts on July 7.

In order to allow the musicians to accompany the Richmond Confederate veterans to the Gettysburg celebration, the Administrative Board consented yesterday to delay the beginning of the live concerts in the parks until July 7. This action was taken at the request of J. Thompson Brown. On the recommendation of a special committee, the board awarded the contract for furnishing the concerts to Professor Moses Stein and his bandmaster, Professor Stein, who submitted a bid of $3,000 for their services during the entire summer. This was the amount appropriated for music.

Any time there is a falling off in the ranks of the Stein musicians, the contract will be declared void.

Wants Hospital Annex.
 The board also agreed yesterday to recommend to the City Council a special appropriation of $5,000 for the erection of a special pavilion for housing contagious disease patients in the rear of the colored City Hospital. Such a pavilion has already been built for the use of the hospital.

The City Attorney reported that the litigation in connection with the opening of Lady Street has reached the stage when the deeds for the desired property rest in the city's possession. Mr. Beck offered a motion, which was adopted, that tenants of the land now owned by the city on Lady Street be notified to vacate at once and all buildings be sold at public auction.

Thief Waives Examination.
 Walter E. Hight, colored, waived examination on two charges of grand larceny yesterday morning in Police Court, and the cases were sent to the District Court. He was accused of stealing a pendant, valued at $200, from Mrs. E. W. Trafford, and a silver-horned handbag from Mrs. Hugu P. Rose.
